

Duke of Edinburgh's Award

SILVER EXPEDITION SIGN UP DETAILS 2022-23

WALLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

November 2022

Dear Parents/Guardians,

I am happy to provide details of the expedition section of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award. Activ are a DofE Approved Activity Provider (AAP) and deliver expeditions and adventure programmes across the UK for schools and youth groups. Please visit www.activadventures.com if you wish to find out more.

DofE Expeditions - Key Information

The expedition section is both challenging and rewarding. Here are some key points:

- Activ expeditions are run in line with guidelines set by the DofE Award. This includes the expedition 20 Conditions and training frameworks.
- The Silver programme requires participants to complete a training day, a three day/two night practice expedition and a three day/2 night qualifying expedition.
- On expedition, participants walk in teams of 6/7, navigating their way along a pre-planned route through the countryside whilst carrying their kit, food, tents and cooking stoves in a rucksack (on average weighing 12-14 kg), walking for approximately seven hours per day, cooking as a team and camping overnight in 3-person tents.
- As outlined by DofE, self-reliance and completing expeditions with minimal external intervention is required. Participants must take responsibility for their own health and safety as they will be remotely supervised for parts of the expeditions. They will encounter certain risks integral to the expeditions including (without limitation) walking on rough terrain, managing environmental hazards such as changeable weather, extended physical effort and feeling uncomfortable and tired.
- Participants must be in a good state of physical and mental health in order to safely and successfully complete the expeditions, declaring to us beforehand any well-being or medical issues.
- Participants must be available for the expedition dates stated below otherwise they risk not being able to complete the award. Additional costs may be incurred to attend alternative dates.

Training

We provide comprehensive training to prepare participants for the expeditions and ensure they have all the skills required. This is delivered through an in school training day and during the practice expedition. It is vital that training is attended and that all participants actively engage to gain the most they can. All training is supported by resources found in the Activ Guide on our website <http://www.activadventures.com/activ-guide/>.

Expedition Information

Information will be sent by email to parents and participants at least 3 weeks prior to events detailing the event, timings and meet points. No travel costs are included in the expedition however travel plans are always suggested.

Expeditions typically have a meet time of 11:00 in the expedition area (depending on location). We estimate expeditions to finish from 15:00 in the expedition area however this depends on individual teams and the time they wake, leave camp and the speed they walk and navigate.

Responsibilities - Participant and Parent

Parents and participants must ensure they have expedition dates in their diary and keep up-to-date with the expedition information sent by email. Participant attendance and participation in training and expeditions is compulsory to complete the programme. Participants should take responsibility for their own fitness for the expeditions and should be able to comfortably walk for extended periods on rough terrain, carrying a rucksack of 12-14 kg. The fitter participants are, the more enjoyable the expeditions. Participants must keep up-to-date with information about the expedition programme and ensure they are prepared for expeditions in line with the training they receive. Parents should also support participants to be appropriately prepared, equipped and fit for the expeditions. Our Booking Terms and Conditions should be carefully read and understood by parents.

Expedition Consent and Medical Form

It is a requirement that parents submit consent and medical details to us before a participant can attend any event. These details are included in the online sign-up form for our expedition programmes. A copy of these details are emailed to you as confirmation and it is vital that you update us if any medical and/or emergency contact details change.
